

Ukraine becomes a member of feaco

European Federation of Management Consultancies Associations sets sign of solidarity

(Brussels) feaco (European Federation of Management Consultancies Associations) admits the Ukrainian consulting association CMC-Ukraine as an associate member. In doing so, feaco is sending a signal of solidarity with the country in a state of war and for the unity of consulting companies in Europe.

"We are very pleased with feaco's decision. It is a big honour and great pleasure to be part of the association. This is another important step for Ukraine to be integrated to Europe. Our members will benefit from the network and the unity at European level will give our consulting firms the opportunity to collaborate and together support Ukraine Recovery," said Olga Trofymova, President of the association CMC-Ukraine.

Matthias Loebich, President of feaco, adds: "With the admission of CMC-Ukraine to feaco it is a very strong sign to support the Ukraine in its current situation in the best possible way. With this important step the members of the CMC-Ukraine have access to the extensive feaco network in Europe and the all the cooperation possibilities of the association."

About CMC-Ukraine:

CMC-Ukraine established in 2011 as a platform for the development of the management consultant profession and management culture development in Ukraine. Today, the CMC community unites 85 members.

The association is an exclusive member of the International Institute for Management Consulting ICMCI, which includes more than 8,200 certified management consultants (CMCs) in the world who meet the high standards of highly qualified consultants, and 64,200 individual consultants who adhere to the organization's ethical standards.

About feaco:

FEACO, the European Federation of Management Consultancies Associations, is a not-for-profit organisation. Established in 1960, the Federation counts 15 national member associations.

The general purpose of FEACO is to assist in the promotion and development of the profession of Management Consultancy in Europe by providing support to its constituent National Association membership in those areas where a collective voice is stronger than the sum of its individual members.

Press Contact:

FEACO European Federation of Management Consultancies Associations

Annette Sausen

annette.sausen@bdu.de